

Legislative Affairs Intern

Project Title	Legislative Affairs Intern
Project Summary	LPA is responsible for the USAID's external affairs and serves as the liaison between the Agency and the American people, Congress, media and other key constituencies. Interns primarily work in one of five areas: 1) Legislative Affairs, 2) Press, 3) Public Affairs, 4) Administrative Management, or 5)
Country	United States
Agency	Agency for International Development
DoS Office	N/A
Post	N/A
Section	N/A
Number of Interns	4

Project Description

Research and analyze federal legislation, prepare senior USAID staff to brief and/or testify before members of Congress and help with outreach to members of Congress and their respective staff. In addition, Intern will work with Agency's staff to process and transmit reports to Capitol Hill.

Desired Skills Interests

Skill

Accessibility

Data analysis

Editing

Knowledge management

MS Office

PowerPoint

Research

Communication Skills

Writing

Attention to detail

interest in international development

Additional Information

The U.S. Agency for International Development's Bureau for Legislative and Public Affairs (LPA) is excited to participate in VSFS!

LPA is responsible for USAID's external affairs and serves as the liaison between the Agency and the American people, Congress, media and other key constituencies. Interns primarily work in one of five areas: 1) Legislative Affairs, 2) Press, 3) Public Affairs, 4) Administrative Management, or 5) Internal Communications.

Language Requirements

None