

Find Solutions for Americans in Trouble Overseas

Project Title	Find Solutions for Americans in Trouble Overseas
Project Summary	Investigate emergency resources available to assist Americans in need in remote areas of the South Pacific.
Country	Fiji
Agency	Department of State
DoS Office	N/A
Post	SUVA
Section	CONS
Number of Interns	1

Project Description

Help the U.S. Embassy in Suva, Fiji, assist American travellers in sticky situations abroad by researching the availability of local medical, police, and emergency providers in the areas of:

Nauru
Tuvalu
French Polynesia
New Caledonia
Wallis and Futuna

Create website content guiding American citizens through the process of utilizing emergency medical care, translation services, police assistance, and other critical resources in remote, unfamiliar, and developing areas where they may not speak the local language.

A competitive e-intern candidate will need French language skills to translate local information for an English-speaking audience.

Desired Skills Interests

Skill

Editing

Imagining new solutions

Independent

Research

Self Motivated

Additional Information

See example website content at <http://suva.usembassy.gov/death.html> or <http://suva.usembassy.gov/doctors.html>.

Language Requirements

Language	Speaking Proficiency	Reading Proficiency	Importance
French	Limited working proficiency	Minimum professional proficiency	Required