Project Description

Host a regular English language music club for Libyan students (high school and university preferred, but we would not discourage older Libyan language learners). Select American music from across genres accessible to Libyans and hold regular on-line listening and discussion sessions. You can advertise and use the U.S. Embassy Libya Facebook page but if you find a platform even more conducive to sessions you may migrate there.

Desired Skills Interests

Additional Information

Self-starter; passion for American music and its cultural context, learning and sharing knowledge; organizational, communication (social media). Ability to generate conversation about shared listening material.

Coordinate with the Public Affairs Officer at the Libya External Office.
