

Student to Student: Tell it like it is

Project Title	Student to Student: Tell it like it is
Project Summary	Be the intern/coordinator to develop engaging, high impact videos about university study in the United States.
Country	Libya
Agency	Department of State
DoS Office	N/A
Post	TRIPOLI
Section	EXEC
Number of Interns	3

Project Description

Libyan students are keen to study in the U.S. but, generally, new to the international student market. We seek an American intern who can make short videos about study in the U.S. From the admission process, to selecting the school, to arriving at the school, social life, extracurricular activities, volunteering, working, student leadership, athletics, academics, what is major?, internship, honor codes, study groups, writing papers, making presentations, staying safe, etc. Anything and everything about being a student at an American university. We seek an intern who can develop creative, engaging videos which will be featured on the U.S. Embassy Libya Facebook page.

Desired Skills Interests

Additional Information

Self-starter; passion for education and sharing knowledge about education with prospective foreign students; organizational, communication (social media) and research skills. Ability to make charming, engaging and effective short videos about university life in the U.S., both scholastic and extra-curricular features.

Coordinate with the Public Affairs Officer at the Libya External Office.

Language Requirements

None