

Latin America Citizen Security, Democracy, and Governance Research Project

| | |
|-------------------|--|
| Project Title | Latin America Citizen Security, Democracy, and Governance Research Project |
| Project Summary | Provide assistance with literature reviews and drafting research papers on issues pertaining to citizen security and democratic governance in Latin America with an emphasis on Central American countries in the Northern Triangle. |
| Country | United States |
| Agency | Agency for International Development |
| DoS Office | N/A |
| Post | N/A |
| Section | N/A |
| Number of Interns | 5 |

Project Description

USAID seeks 2-3 VSFSers to assist the Latin American Bureau provide research, analytic, and communications support to USAID programming on issues including homicide reduction, gang-involved youth, gender based violence, community-based prevention models, fragility, justice sector reform, municipal governance, human rights, investigative journalism, and security sector reform. Strong research skills are a must and work or academic experience in one or more topic areas is preferred. Work experience in Central America is a plus, but not required

Desired Skills Interests

Skill

Research

Communication Skills

writing

Evidence-based decision making

Interest in development and social impact

Development

Additional Information

None

Language Requirements

| Language | Speaking Proficiency | Reading Proficiency | Importance |
|----------|-------------------------------|-------------------------------|------------|
| Spanish | Full professional proficiency | Full professional proficiency | Required |
