

Annual Trafficking in Persons Report Research and Production Intern

Project Title	Annual Trafficking in Persons Report Research and Production Intern
Project Summary	Cultivate and synthesize trafficking-related content for the annual Trafficking in Persons Report (TIPR), support in the production and delivery of the TIPR, and research and analyze trafficking trends in the Sub-Saharan and Great Lakes Region.
Country	United States

Project Description

The Annual Trafficking in Persons report is published every spring. As an intern for the J/TIP/RPA team, you will assist with researching and identifying production-related pieces such as cultivating trafficking photos, developing relationships with international photojournalists, and writing coherent and thoughtful captions and commentary that will be published in the report. The intern will also assist with researching trends in trafficking, specifically working with an AF team member, to translate, synthesize, and analyze government efforts to combat trafficking in the Sub-Saharan and Great Lakes region.
