

Help Keep Diplomats Safe - Analysis That Makes A Difference

Project Title	Help Keep Diplomats Safe - Analysis That Makes A Difference
Project Summary	Support the Regional Security Office at the U.S. Consulate General in Nuevo Laredo by monitoring and analyzing information from various sources to inform risk management policy. Your work will help leadership to better understand the security environment, assess risk, and make critical decisions.
Country	Mexico

Project Description

The Regional Security Office at the U.S. Consulate General in Nuevo Laredo, Mexico is tasked with protecting America's diplomats as they carry out the important work of the State Department. You can be a part of that effort by helping us to manage risk by monitoring, analyzing, and better understanding the security environment. You will:

- Assist in developing a comprehensive risk management strategy.
- Monitor and analyze reports from various sources including blogs, social media, and traditional media outlets.
- Leverage research and analytical tools to develop insight on emerging trends.
- Produce written and graphical content in various forms ranging from short scene setters to in-depth reports.

We need a curious and self-motivated individual who can explore information and provide analysis with minimal direction. This is a great opportunity to learn about the exciting world of the U.S. foreign policy and to get your work in front of experienced State Department leaders. Spanish language proficiency preferred.

Required Skills or Interests

Skill(s)
Analytical writing
Data analysis
Editing and proofreading
Research

Additional Information

None

Language Requirements

Language	Speaking Proficiency	Reading Proficiency	Importance
Spanish	Minimum professional proficiency	Minimum professional proficiency	Nice to Have