

Human Trafficking Research: Lusophone & Francophone West Africa

Project Title	Human Trafficking Research: Lusophone & Francophone West Africa
Project Summary	Using open source media and resources, research and analyze current human trafficking trends and governmental responses to combat human trafficking in Lusophone and Francophone West Africa.
Country	United States

Project Description

Research and analyze current human trafficking trends and governmental responses to combat human trafficking in Lusophone and Francophone West Africa to contribute information for the Trafficking in Persons Report, through open source media searches, government websites, international organization publications, books, and journals. This project will primarily focus on Guinea-Bissau, Cabo Verde, Senegal, Guinea, and Cote d'Ivoire but may also include Mauritania, Mali, and Burkina Faso.

Required Skills or Interests

Skill(s)
Data analysis
Political Analysis
Research
Writing

Additional Information

None

Language Requirements

Language Speaking Proficiency		Reading Proficiency	Importance
Portuguese	Minimum professional proficiency	Minimum professional proficiency	Nice to Have
French	Elementary proficiency	Limited working proficiency	Required